THE GOVERNOR GENERAL.

CANBERRA, Sept. 27.—The Governor General has changed his plans, and will arrive at Calgary from Melbourn about noon on Tuesday. Please inform parties there.
LAGAN, Sept. 28.—The Governor General will go to Glenora in the morning at Calgary. I understand Governor General is waiting there for him. No doubt Calgary people can arrange a demonstration on his arrival there from the south.

WINNIPEG.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 27.—The C.P.R. club was the lastest football.
Hon. Chas. Tupper left this morning for Victoria via the Northern Pacific. He will confer with the Hon. Columbia Government with a view of securing an exhibit from that province.
Hon. Thos. White will remain here a few days and proceed westward to the Minnesota district. He will also visit southern Manitoba, probably next week. On Oct. 1 he will start for the west, leaving the train at Brandon and going to Yorkton, travelling by backroad, then to Crescent and will return by way of Qu'Appelle and Regina and thence on to the Rockies. He is not sure of being able to cross to the Pacific coast or not, but if he goes he will visit Calgary and all surrounding ranches, thence to Melfort and Lethbridge and eastward to Winnipeg, meeting the people along the route and enquire into all matters connected with the department.

Winnipeg was a private in the First Regiment. He was buried with military honors yesterday.
WINNIPEG, Sept. 24.—The Ottawa has been the Winnipeg in the lastest football. Winnipeg and Minnesota played today. A delegation of the Board of Trade will wait on Hon. Thos. White and present a petition urging the change of the province to charter local railways.
H. F. Forest, C.E., has left for Regina to see the Qu'Appelle & Long Lake Railways to examine and report the feasibility of extending the line east to the lake as may be directed.
Lord Lansdowne met with an enthusiastic greeting at Moosejaw and Regina, and was presented with addresses.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 25.—The lastest football was played yesterday, first prize. Ottawa scored, Winnipeg scored, C.P.R. scored. A man known as Harry the tailor, and his son were drowned in the Red River yesterday.
Winnipeg has raised $5,000 for a volunteer railway.
The Galt Railway was opened yesterday. An address was presented to Lord Lansdowne. He replied, congratulating the people on securing at an early stage in the history of the country the most necessary adjunct of a settlement—a railway. He referred to the mining as usually one of the most important factors in the building up of a commercial and manufacturing interest, and predicted a rapid development of the town and surrounding country. After lunch the mines were inspected and the ceremony of opening the railway was proceeded with. At 6 o'clock the C.P.R. colony and party were entertained at dinner by the Northwest Coal & Navigation Co. Among those who participated in the first were the whole of the company employed in the pits, numbering 300. It was a novel sight, and the Governor General expressed his delight with the arrangements. The party starts for Melbourn in the morning.

Prairie fire in Dakota and many portions of the Canadian Northwest are reported. In the Prince Albert district much damage is being done.
Sir Charles Tupper has been heard from at Helena, Montana, en route to British Columbia. He will return by the C.P.R. Hon. Thos. White received a petition from the settlers of Portage la Paire.
WINNIPEG, Sept. 28.—The Provincial Exhibition at St. Boniface, which was formally opened this morning promises to be very successful.
Owing to the dissipation of the last affair a committee of fifty citizens has been appointed to prepare a reception for the Governor General on his return from the west.
It is expected that Sir Charles Tupper will drive the last spike on the C.P.R. before his return.
H. Clark, an old man, committed suicide yesterday in this city by shooting himself through the head. Despondency and whiskey combined were the causes of the act.
The last kick of the pavement of Main street was formally laid on Saturday afternoon.
WINNIPEG, Sept. 28.—The Provincial exhibition at St. Boniface is a great success.
Hon. F. White returned from Northwest to Calgary on Sunday. He will leave for the west on Thursday, and is present at the opening of the Provincial Exhibition tomorrow morning.

was burnt to death by a prairie fire last week.

There is great indignation and excitement in Emerson in consequence of the Emerson boy line to use them on the Southern Railway.
Big Bear and a number of other Indian Chiefs to tender his resignation as adjutant while he is in the line.
He is a miserable looking Indian of over sixty years in age and his worn features tell of the wrecked life, which he has been leading for many years past. His eyes are small and staring, while his face is thin and gaunt. He is the last Indian whom one would imagine to have such influence over his fellow savages of the Northwest.

REGINA.

REGINA, Sept. 24.—The Indian, Benana, was before the court for the murder of Eagle Child on Aug. 9. The trial was postponed until Thursday. The murder was committed through jealousy.
REGINA, Sept. 28.—Gibson, deputy sheriff, leaves tomorrow by special car for Winnipeg and Stony Mountain with Big Bear, Philip and others, the secretary of Big Bear's rebel council and eighteen other persons sent Saturday to various terms in the Manitoba penitentiary. Five other Indians were sent from here today to be tried at Battleford.

QU'APPELLE.

QU'APPELLE, Sept. 22.—The Governor General arrived here last night and drove to Qu'Appelle this morning where a committee was sent inspecting points of interest. An address was presented to His Excellency by the city, after which the special left for Regina.

BATTLEFORD.

BATTLEFORD, Sept. 22.—Judge Robinson opened court yesterday. The murder of Qu'Appelle this morning where a committee was sent inspecting points of interest. An address was presented to His Excellency by the city, after which the special left for Regina.
BATTLEFORD, Sept. 26.—Wandering Spencers arrested him and took him to Battleford. A dozen other Indians of the same name were arrested, dismissed and allowed him to keep his revolver. The party were followed by a howling mob all the time.

INDIAN HEAD.

INDIAN HEAD, Sept. 21.—Prairie fires are raging north and east of here doing much damage. Walker and Kerr two men were killed, burnt including bay, horse and machinery.

PORT ARTHUR.

PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 21.—A large lot of dynamite belonging to railroad contractors exploded yesterday.
Mr. Hare of the Guelph agricultural college is dead.
PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 28.—J. & E. Will's building mill was burned here on Friday night.

TORONTO.

TORONTO, Sept. 28.—It is talked of here to get up a public subscription to reimburse the city of Montreal for his share in the rebel suit in Montreal. He is in a state of great excitement. It is thought that the city will be completely ruined. The police will patrol round the public buildings all night, while the military will be held in readiness to move to quickly put a stop to any repetition of such proceedings.

OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—The Minister of Militia has signed the first batch of certificates for land grants to volunteers who served in the late rebellion. The certificates are handed into the Department of the Interior and are at its authority to issue script at once.
OTTAWA, Sept. 25.—The following cabinet changes have been made Hon. Mr. Pope appointed to the Department of Agriculture. Sir Alex Campbell Post Master General.
OTTAWA, Sept. 26.—The following are new appointments: Judge Thompson, Antigonish Justice. Mr. Joseph Liberal for Antigonish appointed a Judge to make room for the Hon. Mr. Pope to the Department of the Interior, who organized the work will be completed by the end of next month, and the report ready in time for the session of Parliament.
It is understood the Department of Justice has to three or four of the Militia reserve in the month of October last, for settlement.
A meeting of the town council will be held shortly to decide who are qualified to receive land.

OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, Sept. 28.—Wills have been issued for the Commons election in Antigonish, Nova Scotia, and St. John's. N. B. will be held in the 16th and 25th of October respectively.
An order-in-council notices an amendment to the C.P.R. tariff and allows the railway to charge less for extra for tickets purchased on the trip.
Antigonish is granted commission for administering justice of peace in the district.

OTTAWA, Sept. 29.—Dr. McIntosh will be the Liberal candidate for Antigonish.

LONDON, ONT.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Col. Williams, of the 7th Battalion, has resigned Captain Williams to tender his resignation as adjutant while he is in the line.
He is a miserable looking Indian of over sixty years in age and his worn features tell of the wrecked life, which he has been leading for many years past. His eyes are small and staring, while his face is thin and gaunt. He is the last Indian whom one would imagine to have such influence over his fellow savages of the Northwest.
Winnipeg, Sept. 28.—Solomon White, Frank Riley, an old farmer of Belleville, charged with assault with intent to kill. The trouble arose through their luggage containing several weeks' wages, when White assaulted the old man so savagely that he has been confined ever since.

MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, Sept. 22.—The Sheppard Hotel case was continued yesterday. Major Dugas gave his evidence. Sheppard denied the jury on his own behalf, and the court adjourned till tomorrow. The city editor of the Toronto News, during the trial, admitted having written the libelous article, and as he was leaving Court he was arrested, taken before a magistrate and released on $2,000 bail.

MONTREAL, Sept. 23.—The trial of Sheppard of the Toronto News for libel against the city government, was concluded today. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of publishing the libel without knowing it to be false. The defendant was fined $200. As he was leaving the court a mob of men accompanied the trial as an attached officer forced his way through the crowd and attempted to strike Sheppard with a whip. Sheppard parried it with his umbrella and Normandeau followed him up, when Sheppard drew a revolver. The military arrested him and took him to the police station. Sheppard was released on bail. The police did not over the heads of the rioters, only to be received with jeers and laughter. Things at last looked as though the police were armed with rifles and shot, but happily it was not deemed necessary to use them. The constables charged the mob, clubbing them right and left, and succeeded in dispersing them, but not before they had broken the greater part of the coat house windows on the side opposite the city hall. The mob then broke up into different bodies and proceeded to wreck the windows of the Herald office and of the offices of the medical health officers and of the chairman of the committee and of the committee of public vaccination. A number of arrests were made. The city is in a state of great excitement. It is thought that the city will be completely ruined. The police will patrol round the public buildings all night, while the military will be held in readiness to move to quickly put a stop to any repetition of such proceedings.

DUBLIN.

DUBLIN, Sept. 23.—Miss Mary Anderson, recently stabbed herself slightly while performing in Roman and Juliet last night.
DUBLIN, Sept. 23.—Thirty moonlighters made a raid last night on farms belonging to the estate of Sir Henry Dawson in Killybegs, and made the tenants aware that they would withhold their rents unless they were granted a reduction of thirty per cent. The tenants of Henry Dawson's estate in Killybegs, headed by some priests, visited the proprietor and demanded a reduction of thirty per cent on their rent. The demand was refused and the tenants withdrew declining to say anything.

LONDON.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—Russian newspapers consider the situation in the Balkans as becoming more critical and they doubt the possibility of reaching the status quo. Prince Alexander has issued an order announcing the union of eastern Romania and Bulgaria. He says he has accepted a popular election in no hostile spirit to Turkey.

LONDON.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The Prince of Wales is in Vienna traveling incognito. The Roumania difficulty is not yet settled. Prince Alexander is willing to declare, if Russia will procure unity with Bulgaria.
LONDON, Sept. 27.—The announcement of a conference of the powers probably at Constantinople combined with that of a special cabinet council has calmed the general anxiety with regard to the eastern question. The outbreak of indignation at the Roumania difficulty is still in the air. Even a rumor of the assassination of King Milan has gained considerable credence. The Roumania difficulty is not yet settled. Prince Alexander is willing to declare, if Russia will procure unity with Bulgaria.
